

Thomas Gillespie House on River Street, Carbondale, PA

Thomas Gillespie house on River Street in Carbondale (Scan from map of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company Railroad, Pennsylvania Division, Plymouth to Carbondale (Map No. 1 from the Medina Railroad Museum)

This house on River Street in Carbondale, following the death of Thomas Gillespie, ultimately became the property of James and Margaret Russell. Two of their children, Jeanette Locke Russell and Jane Martha Russell (known to all of the members of the Russell family as Aunt Nettie and Aunt Jennie) lived in this house (35 River Street) in the twentieth century. The house is no longer standing. On this site, now stands the Lapera Gas Station. (SRP, 09-13-2024)

(Note that there is a property at the far right of this map detail that was owned by Samuel Jones. The oldest daughter of James and Margaret Russell, Margaret Gillespie Russell (known to Helen Russell Powell as “Aunt Maggie”) married Samuel Sheldon Jones.)
